

KY EXCEL Quarterly Update

KY EXCEL Member Celebration

Calling all KY EXCEL members and environmental leaders throughout Kentucky, join the Division of Compliance Assistance (DCA) at the 2017 KY EXCEL Member Celebration in Lexington, KY.

We cordially invite you to gather us as we recognize the hard work and environmental achievements which you and all of the KY EXCEL members have accomplished in 2016 and over the past ten years. Meet and greet with members from around the state and see what opportunities are available.

The 2017 KY EXCEL Member Celebration will be held on January 25, 2017 from 4 p.m. to 7 p.m. EST at the Locust Trace Agriculture Center. To RSVP and reserve your free ticket (s), please visit DCA.ticketleap.com. Additional Information about Locust Trace AgriScience Center is available online at <http://www.locustrace.fcps.net/>.

Meet Robyn!

Meet the newest smiling face amongst KY EXCEL's staff, Robyn Whitted. Feel free to contact her with any of your KY EXCEL needs.

Whether you need to submit a project report, find out which project you are supposed to be reporting on, or having problems coming up with a new project proposal, get in touch with Robyn. She is wonderful at brainstorming new ideas!

Are you looking for resources to help with environmental compliance, pollution prevention or energy efficiency - just give Robyn a call! She has a wealth of knowledge and resources ready to share.

She is waiting to hear from you – e-mail her at Robyn.Whitted@ky.gov or give her a friendly hello by calling 502-782-6476.

Training Opportunities

For current training events please visit the following:

Do you submit anything to DEP through an eForm?

Beginning Jan. 13, 2017, individuals submitting electronic notices or reports with a DEP eForm will be required to have an account through Kentucky One Stop Business Portal (<http://onestop.ky.gov/Pages/default.aspx>). If there is a notification or report that will need to be submitted in the near future with a DEP eForm, go ahead and set up a user account.

See more about this change by reading the Naturally Connected blog at <https://kydep.wordpress.com/2016/12/14/kentucky-environmental-protection-eform-submissions-to-change-in-new-year/>.

Upcoming Training Opportunities

Don't forget to take a look at the training opportunities coming up.
